

JOHNSON'S LAWYER
HAS APPEAL READY

Attorney L. H. Machen Soon
To Leave for Richmond
With Petition.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU,
ALEXANDRIA, VA., OCT. 1.

Attorney L. H. Machen, who defended Calvin Johnson, one of the colored men convicted of the murder of Walter F. Schultz, the Chicago artist, has prepared his petition to the court of appeals for a new trial for Johnson. Common-wealth Attorney S. G. Brent has the evidence in the trial of Johnson, and is examining it before turning it over to Mr. Machen.

Attorney Machen will leave for Richmond within the next few days to lay before the court of appeals his petition and the evidence in the case, and to ask for a new trial. It is expected that the court of appeals will grant a stay of execution to Johnson, when Attorney Machen makes his appeal, as the documents in the case are voluminous, and the court will not have time to examine them before the date set for the execution of Johnson, which is set for next Friday.
